

Comment distinguer les différents régimes de protection ?

La mesure de protection doit assurer dans les meilleures conditions affectives et matérielles possibles la protection de la personne et de son patrimoine.

Le souci de personnalisation des mesures impose de se repérer parmi l'éventail des protections.

Au besoin de protection provisoire qu'assure la sauvegarde de justice répond la protection durable de la curatelle

et de la
tutelle,
cette dernière
constituant un
dernier
recours à l'égard des

majeurs pour
lesquels les
effets des
autres régimes
s'avéreraient
insuffisants.

Le choix entre curatelle et tutelle

s'opère en
fonction du
besoin de
protection
révélé par

l'état du
majeur :
celui d'être
représenté
d'une

manière
continue ou
celui d'être
conseillé
ou contrôlé

pour le
présentant
un degré
d'autonomi

e psychologi
que et
physique
suffisante

et ayant
conservé
les moyens
et le désir
d'intervenir

dans la
gestion de
ses
affaires.

En outre,
la curatelle
est
seule
envisagée

able

lorsque la

résulte de

la

prodigalité

é,

l'intempér

ance ou
l'oisiveté
du
majeur.

Même
renforcée
